When I played golf I learned to eat something I did not eat before. I learned another tongue complete, I learned to like about my score. When I played golf I learned to flirt—An opportunity more rare—and as I caressed the dirt, I learned to swear. When I played golf I learned to steal. The balls the other players lost. I learned to spend my all and feel "Twas wrong to stop and count the cost. When I played golf my great concern Was this—I say it to my shame—The only thing I did not learn Was how to play the cussed game. —Lafe.

WILL THE PEOPLE SUBMIT?

Following are the net results of the infamous Gobell Election Committee. Demagogues, after having captured the election system in every county in Kentucky, in 95 counties there are two Democratic and one Republican Election Commissioner; and in 10 other counties there are two Democratic and one Populist Commissioner; and in the 11 remaining counties we have solidly Democratic Boards.

Remember, that in helpless minorities one against two in 86 counties, and in 24 counties they are absolutely without representation on the Boards that are masters of the election machinery, past and all election contests and from whose most infamous decisions there is no appeal.

The Republican organizations were not permitted to select the few Republicans supported by the public facts in the so-called Populists are nearly all Democrats in disguise, having voted and acted with the Democratic party on every important occasion during the year.

The mark of hypocrisy that was put on when Judge PAYSON was elected a member of the State Election Commission had been thrown off, and the Gobell conspiracy is revealed in all its hideousness.

The Republican party has been just an enemy to the state and nation as to justify these outrages against law and decency to drive it to keep it from power?

Is the story of WILLIAM GUY not the same as his high-handed foulness so inconstant to the welfare of Kentucky as to condone this unnameable rape of the ballot?

Will the people submit?

THE Administration has cabled to Porto Rico that the United States will assume control of that island October 15th.

If Uncle Sam's Peace Commissioners come home from Paris without a deed to the Philippines in their inside pockets, the old gentleman ought to send word to Admiral DAWRY to procure the document.

If any Republican has a personal reason for not voting for Mr. PUGH, just let him vote to sustain the Administration by casting a ballot with Mr. PUGH's name on it. No Republican can afford to vote for an enemy to his principles.

DORA RICHARDSON, of DORA RICHARDSON CLAY, is now DORA RICHARDSON CLAY BROWN, and she is here to stay. And it is hoped the country will have a few weeks respite from sensational newspaper twaddle about General CASIUS MARCELLUS CLAY's real wife.

NEBRASKA'S corn crop is worth $27,000,000. As this is nearly three times the value of Colorado's silver output, it is strange that the Nebraskans are not demanding the free and unlimited coinage of corn at the ratio of 16 cents to 1 kernel without the consent of any other Nation or son of a gun.

The value of advertising is indispensible. It was P. T. BARNUM who said that a young man could be successful in life if he had a capital of $10 and would invest $1 in an article and $9 in advertising. BARNUM practiced what he preached and died worth several millions, after having spent $9 in advertising for every one he owned.

It's singular how some persons can ease their conscience. Anti-expansionists say they will be willing to keep the city and bay of Manila, or even the entire Island of Luzon, but that it will be wrong to keep the balance of the Philippines. They believe, evidently, that—although the generally accepted rule is that the acknowledgement of part of an obligation is an acknowledgment of all. If it's right to keep any part of the Philippines, it's right to keep the whole of them, and if it's wrong to keep the whole of them, it's wrong to keep even one island or one city.

"It is a sin to steal a pig."

DON'T HANG ROUND HERE.

"If you don't marry me I shall hang myself," said the girl to her father.
"Well, if you do, please go down a block," was the cheerful response, "for I heard papa say he did not want you to hang around here."

ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS.
Cleveland Leader.
Kneeling before the beautiful grass-widow, he cried:

"You are the first woman I ever really knew."
"I know it," she replied, "but still I hope to be able to teach you how, in time."

A GROWING LIST.

Chicago News.
"I see that one Chicago girl is the wife of the Governor of the Philippines and another is to share the vice-regal throne of India."
"Yes; and I know still another Chicago girl is to be the Queen of Africa."
"Who is she?"
"My wife."

ALONE WITH WASHINGTON.

Seattle Post-Intelligencer.
Mama—It is very naughty to tell lies. Eva—
I don't care if I do, I'm going to heaven.
Eva—Did you ever tell a lie, mama?
Mama—No, never.
Eva—Won't you be fearful lonely in heaven,
mama, with only George Washington.

GOOD DOMESTIC INTENTIONS.

Boston Transcript.
Tincum—My wife is the most thoughtful,
economical creature in the world.
Hiding—What do you mean?
Tincum—Think so? I know it. Whenever she buys something that she could get along without if it was necessary, she always thinks to say that she will save it in something else.

DOUBTFUL.

Cleveland Leader.
"Mrs. WENDRICKS must be fond of her husband."
"She's?"
"She's so careful about his health—always seems to be worrying for fear he'll sit in a draft."
"Oh, I see—so sign that she's particularly fond of him. Mrs. WENDRICKS hates to bear him when he catches cold."

CABBY'S RICH FARE.

London Times.
"Princesses street, sir," said a cabby outside a Yorkshire railway station to his fare. "Why, that's only half a minute's walk from 'ere."
"Never mind, drive away," answered the gentleman.

"I can't charge you less than eighteen pence, sir; that's the legal fare."

"All right, my good man; just start quickly and give me a cheap fare."

Cabby—He stepped on the box with a beaming face, faced his horse, and shouted jocosely
to an imaginary wife:

"Don't wait dinner if I'm late, Mary Ann.
I've got King Klondike by his bimetallic haberdash."
